GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Fellow Lions,

The New Year is upon us and our Lions year is half over. I find it amazing that every PDG told me that time will fly and it has. Moving ahead on the reverse slope and picking up steam. I have visited 51 clubs at least once and it has been amazing to hear and see all that you have accomplished. At the current pace we will have outdone ourselves and provided those in our community a little better life than the way it started.

WORLDWIDE WEEK OF SERVICE. Our next Worldwide Week of Service (WWS) is January 10-16 and is the Worldwide Week of Service in Hunger. Many of our food banks get flooded with food over the holidays, but in the weeks that follow the pantry can be quite barren. Please plan an activity to help your local or area food banks and shelters. Remember to report it as part of the WWS and Centennial Service Activity.

http://www.lionsclubs.org/resources/EN/pdfs/contest_official_rules.pdf

STATE DUES. Many thanks to those clubs that were able to get the check in the mail before the due date of December 31, 2015. We still have a five clubs that have been unable to get the check in the mail, but hopefully soon.

LCI DUES. Speaking of money, LCI is looking for the 2nd half dues for the year. All clubs should have received their statements by now, so make it a point to get the check into the mail before the end of January. Two clubs have overdue notices from July 2015, so please make sure you get these caught up to date.

IRS FILINGS. These were due by November 15th and according to the IRS web site we still have 14 clubs that have not filed. Granted, the web site is not updated very often, but I encourage every club to check their status with the IRS and ensure they have filed their 2014 e-post card or other IRS forms.

MEMBERSHIP. December was a rough month as clubs cleaned house to avoid LCI dues on December 31st. Our losses included Lions Jim & Linda Gregory who have officially transferred to a club in Florida, so we wish them well in retirement. Over all we were a net loss of -1 for the month, but are still at a net gain of +20 in membership from the beginning of the Lions Year. A remarkable accomplishment that I can only hope we can maintain for the rest of the Lions year and beyond. Thank you for your efforts.

REDISTIRICING. This topic has been a struggle for the last two years, but I see a light at the end of the tunnel. Hopefully, that light is not a speeding locomotive. Please take a moment to review the presentation on the MD24 Web Site at: <http://e-district.org/userfiles/374/file/Redistricting%20presentation%20for%20clubs%2019Dec15.pdf> and provide me some feedback on what you think. One thing I need to make clear is that we do NOT have to redistrict at this time. The Council of Governors just felt that it would be best to try to do it now.

GOVERNORS SOCIAL. Everyone is cordially invited to join us and the Past District Governors at our annual Governors Social to be held February 27th at the Point Plaza Hotel. This will be a Mardi Gras themed event. A flyer can be found in this edition of the Knights Vision.

LETTER FROM A MOTHER

Dear Lions Club District 24D,

I am writing to express my deepest gratitude for the vision screening you (sic Smithfield & Windsor Lions Clubs) provided to my kindergartener at Carrollton Elementary on November 5, 2015. You detected that she has a rather sever astigmatism in both eyes and that she is far-sighted. Neither her teacher nor her family had noticed any signs that she might have impaired vision. It was quite shocking to look through her lenses, observing the strength of her prescription. She may have gone several more years with her poor vision had you not generously provided her with your exam.

Thank you for giving my child the opportunity to see this beautiful world.

Warmest regards,

A kindergartener's mother

Tucker Casanova

1st Vice District Governor

Well for the most part the holidays are over. I hope that everyone reading this got to spend lots of time with their loved ones and had time to reflect on the year past. If there was more good times than bad consider yourself lucky. There are a lot of people who can't say the same. It's for them the LIONS exist, but they have to know we're here for them. We are a dynamic network of do-gooders, go-getters and volunteers. When we get a call we need to move on it, reaching out to our resources, notifying and updating not just the people we're helping, but the people who brought us that referral. There is something else though, and maybe the hardest part... We need to learn to ask for help. If your club cannot assist someone in your service area REACH OUT. Whether it's to neighboring clubs, your Zone or the Lions Charity Foundation, use the network the LIONS have spent 100 years building.

That's why we are here, that's what we are for. Not just to help others but each other.

So here we are, ready to serve when needed, prepared to answer the call when it comes. But what if they don't know how to call us? I can't tell you how many people have accidentally stumbled on a co-worker's number at the LMEB. Or worked their way through false leads, dead ends and hopeless phone trees only to end up in my voice mail almost by coincidence. I had a woman call me last month; she had been given NINE wrong numbers before we spoke... NINE.

There are a couple of solutions for that first is weed out all the bad contact information and wipe it out. The other thing we need to do can be a lot more fun.

We need to be more visible. When we are visible we are approachable. We are able to help more people and attract more members. That is why I was so excited when the guest at 24-B's Fall Conference, ID Robert Littlefield from Fargo, North Dakota, started telling us about the Centennial Community Legacy Project. It's all about building our Legacy as LIONS though increasing our visibility, giving a gift to our community, and making an impact. There is no shortage of ideas. From something as simple to cleaning or replacing faded LIONS signs or installing a park bench or bike rack... To considerably more ambitious efforts like building a clinic or expanding a library. Now I don't see myself opening a homeless shelter any time soon... but the beauty is just about every idea you've ever had for a LIONS project falls somewhere between these examples. You can find out more in this month's LION Magazine, (I've asked Lion Sharene, our Knight's Vision Editor to reproduce the info somewhere in this issue) or even check it out online at Lions100.org. Also, there is a perfect example as done by the Mason Neck Lions Club on Facebook. I recently shared their Park Bench Program, but if you missed it you can see it here at:

I'm looking forward to hearing about all the new community programs we're going to see in 2016! Hope you all have a safe and Happy New Year!

Yours in Lionism,
Lion Tucker C

Beth Stevens
2nd Vice District Governor

Let's give 'em something to talk about

Our District is going to “give Lions something to talk about” during an LCI membership webinar on Thursday, January 28, at 11:00 A.M. EST. Our successful service projects during the Lions – Anthem Volunteer Days put us on the radar at Lions Clubs International. When LCI staff reached out to me about participating, of course I highlighted other successful clubs and projects around District 24D. What are we going to talk about? We’re still in the planning stages, but the webinar will focus on service-based recruiting strategies. There are several simple steps your club can take to create large-scale projects by engaging community partners, initiate ways to involve youth in a project, employ stewardship practices for both community partners and prospective members and promote your club through service. Tony Robbins, motivational speaker, says, “Success leaves clues.” We’ll highlight examples of successful clubs and projects that Lions can model. We’ll include our Lions – Anthem Volunteer Days projects featuring how we included children to create a fun, family atmosphere. The Zone E recruitment effort at the Norfolk Technical School led by Tim Marinelli, Region II Chair; Cecil Smithson, Zone E Chair; and Gary Coldren, Zone E Spot Coordinator. In January Ocean View Lions Club and Little Creek Lions Club will jointly host two dinners for the optician students to learn more about the Lions. The events are planned for the Lions Medical Eye Bank and the Southside Eyeglass Recycling Center featuring tours and program details. I’m confident we’ll have something to talk about as a result. Outstanding clubs using service based recruiting techniques will be highlighted. One of the greatest assets of Lions is our ability and willingness to share ideas and help one another. Please join us for the webinar to learn more. Go to the membership webinar page at the Member Center on Lions Clubs International website to register today.

Lions Charity Foundation Supports the Barrier Island Center's "My First Field Trip"

On Wednesday, December 16, the Lions Charity Foundation of 24D visited the Barrier Island Center to deliver a check for $10,000 to support the Center's early childhood education initiative, My First Field Trip. This is the third year that the Charity Foundation has assisted in this effort to improve the lives of our youngest learners on the Eastern Shore. It may be hard for many of you to imagine a child who reaches the age of 3 or 4 who has never been read to or made "music" with anything that comes to hand or applied lots of color to a surface to make "art." But that is the life that many of our children have had. There are now pre-school programs in both counties' schools that work very hard to bring our disadvantaged kids to the point of school readiness. That means providing firm expectations, nutrition, social and emotional support, and knowledge of the basics like names of colors, numbers, and the alphabet. The Barrier Island Center adds enrichment in the form of music and rhythm, art, and manners. Imagine: someone is teaching manners!

Eastern Shore Lions at the Barrier Island Presentation: Lions Ed Robbins, Ben Kidd (Central), Ruth Kellam (Central), Terry Kolet, Karen Kolet, Jerry Phelps (LCF), John Willis Kellam (Central) and Don Fuller (LCF).
